

SUPPORT SERVICES

- 3.1, 3.3, and 3.5 ASAM levels of residential care
- Structured, safe, and stable recovery environment
- Facility staffed 24 hours a day
- Person-centered therapeutic community approach
- Individual, group, and family therapy
- Clinical program activities
- Referral services
- Assessment and treatment of co-occurring disorders
- Medication management
- Psychiatrist available for any necessary prescriptions
- Medical personnel available for consultations on-site or by phone
- Off-site vocational, employment, and job training services (transportation provided)
- 12-step recovery program
- Assistance with community reintegration
- Coordination with other programs in the community for aftercare treatment

FAYETTE HOUSE
FOR ADULT WOMEN
15 S. Fulton Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21223

CMDS
Fayette House

ABOUT CMDS

Established in 2008, CMDS offers management and consulting services for behavioral health programs in Maryland. In addition, we provide housing and support services at Fayette House, residential treatment facilities in Baltimore that offer comfort and care for adult men and women suffering from substance use disorders. CMDS is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF), considered to be the gold standard for accreditation in behavioral health and rehabilitation services.